

HOW GREEN IS YOUR CHURCH?

Saturday 26th September 2009

The aim of the day:

- A study day for churches to see first hand projects demonstrating various “green” technologies
- An opportunity to ask questions and to meet people who have completed projects and who can help install renewable energy installations
- An opportunity to enquire about funding and to have people help
- To explore ways of reducing energy consumption

The agenda for the day:

10:15am Meet in Blue Boar Lane car park, Rochester

10:30 Visit renewable energy project—wood pellet, solar thermal and Photovoltaic

11:15 Leave

11:30 Arrive at large Photovoltaic project

12:15pm Leave

12:45 Arrive Shorne Country Park (directions will be supplied) meeting room—lunch will be provided

1:30 Tour of site to include—wind turbine, wood chip boiler, bio digester, grey water rain recovery, and green roof

2:30 Q&A with the technical people

3:15 Funding an application

3:45 How to take things forward

4:00 Leave

Places limited to 3 people per church, Cost £22 per person (to include lunch), Once booked an introductory paper and directions will be sent a few days before the event. Please confirm your attendance by posting or emailing the reply slip below.

The cost of the day is £22 per person (non refundable), cheques made payable to (Hope in the Community Ltd) this includes lunch. Spaces are limited. If you wish to attend the day please complete the form and return to the address below by Friday August 28th.

Name:

.....

Telephone No: Email:

Address:

.....

Church:

Please advise of any dietary requirements:

Please send to: Alison West, Hope in the Community, 5a New Road Avenue, Chatham, Kent ME4 6BB

Or email to hitc@btconnect.com OR for more details call: 01634 814240

Organised by Hope in the Community Ltd and Church and Society, URC Southern Synod